We will serve a family-style dinner including baked chicken, beef tips, potatoes, vegetables, rolls, and milk, upon request. The banquet is open to all.

There will be a meet and greet at 5 p.m. after the Titledown Train Show closes. Dinner will be served around 6 p.m. The banquet is a great opportunity to talk with people who worked for the GB&W and hear about their days on this fascinating railroad.

We are pleased to announce that Pam McGee Phelps – daughter of the late H. Weldon McGee – will be joining us. Pam will share some of her stories and memories of growing up with the Green Bay & Western Railroad.

After holding the GBWHS Board of Directors election and announcing the results, we will present our main program:

“Green Bay Switch Jobs on the GB&W”

by Dan Luedke

Dan Luedke, retired Green Bay & Western conductor, shares his experiences working the various switch jobs in the Green Bay area. If you've ever been curious about how the GB&W serviced its hometown customers, you won't want to miss Dan's fascinating, first-hand accounts of this work.
